An Evening with Joel Plaskett

Date and Time: Sunday, December 1 7:30 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: 209 Ridge Road North, L0S1N0 Ridgeway, ON

We are beyond excited to welcome the amazing Joel Plaskett to our stage at The Sanctuary - Centre for the Arts. We are looking forward to a night filled with Joel Plaskett's voice and music. Tickets are available only on www.ticketscene.ca.

This is a seated show. Doors open at 7:30 pm, show starts at 8 pm. We offer a cash bar, ATM, an elevator, and a great atmosphere.

Hey Folks,

Whatever I caught last week has given my chest and voice quite a whallop and has yet to let up. I started some antibiotics today in the hopes I'll be back in the saddle later this week.

Unfortunately we've had to shimmy Wednesday's show at The Sanctuary in Ridgeway to Sunday, Dec 1st. While I love performing music, I hate that when I have to call in sick it changes plans for hundreds of people. My apologies to everyone who bought tickets and hope you'll be able to make it on December 1st. If not, contact www.ticketscene.ca for a refund.

Barring any further complications - Ontario, I'll see you soon.

We are happy to welcome Master Fiddler Ashley MacIsaac back to The Sanctuary - Centre for the Arts. It's been a while since we had the honour to host him and we are beyond excited.

Ashley has garnered international acclaim by playing the fiddle in that hard-nosed, traditional Cape-Breton style, while adding his own spin, mixing genres and updating Celtic music to appeal to a broader spectrum of fans. Considered something of a local legend and prodigy by the time of his impressive 1992 debut Close To The Floor, Ashley broke through to the mainstream with the double-platinum genre-bending Hi, How Are You Today? in 1995. International radio play for the single, Sleepy Maggie, and a regular slot on MuchMusic made Ashley an instant Canadian icon.

Doors open at 7:30 pm, show starts at 8 pm. This is a seated show.
